HEX

The latest innovations in kitchen furniture design deserve to be matched with the perfect pairing when it comes to those all-important finishing touches. Taps are one of those central elements that can become the showstopping piece in a kitchen.

Designed to challenge traditional concepts and make the ultimate statement, with distinctive features, the Hex range will coordinate effortlessly with any kitchen featuring industrial style elements and also add interest and edge to a kitchen design featuring traditional elements.

The Italian made Hex range was inspired by paradigmatic industrial styling. This is apparent from the finer details which feature on each and every product in this collection.

Choose the perfect pairing from our comprehensive collection. Available styles include; single lever, dual lever, pull out and professional. On top of that we offer three bespoke finishes which have been carefully perfected for the Hex collection. The matt black, brushed brass and brushed nickel finishes on these products are unique to the Hex collection.
